McKIBBENS STYLISH CLOAKS

We are having a great many compliments on our showing of cloaks this season. Each garment is handsomely tailored. The cloth sponged and shrunk. Sewed with silk, and have the proper hang which is so necessary to the stylish cloak this year. We show a large variety in castors, tans and blacks.

We call your special attention to our

BLACK MONTE CARLOS AND BLACK JACKETS

We have given especial attention to the selection of these, and you can depend upon them being good. Another important thing the prices are RIGHT. We do not sell you at one price and your neighbor at another but put the fairest and lowest price ever put on good first-class cloaks.

Our line of FUR SCARFS this season is extremely good. They are new fresh goods direct from the factory and are marked very low for the grades offered.

The prices range from $18.00 down to 98c.

WALKING SKIRTS.

More new walking skirts received, made right, cut right, with the right cloths in them and the right hang.

At $7.50, $5.00, $4.00, $3.50, $3.00, $2.50.

We want your business. Come and see us.

The Big Cash Department Store is headquarters for everything in their line and make the prices for southwest Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rexroat, after a two weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Barnhart, of Summit, returned to their home at Macomb, Ill. Mr. Rexroat had traveled through this county before the war, when there were few settlers. He marveled greatly at the change.

FURS.—the finest line ever shown in Butler at cut prices. All the new styles in boas, collarettes, muffs and childrens sets. Get our prices on furs. Butler Cash Department Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Nuckles visited the latter's father and brothers, living southeast of Butler, the last of the week. Mr. Nuckles was formerly a citizen of Bates county, but for several years has been holding an important position at the Kansas City Stock Yards.

Roasting Pans.—a fine line, including some new styles, from a square chicken roaster at 39c to a large turkey roaster at 98c.
Butler Cash Department Store.

J. B. Armstrong and L. S. Paddock were in Kansas City one day last week and bought 111 head of western yearling steers which they shipped to Bates to winter. In the spring they will be turned on the pasture, and next fall will be fattened and put on the market. Mr. Paddock says they are best and smoothest lot of western yearlings he ever saw.

Roger Bros. 1847 knives and forks will be in this week. Get our prices on them and see if they have advanced. Butler Cash Department Store.

J. W. Warnock beats Tom Robinson's Vernon county beet by several pounds. He brought to our office two beets, raised on his place in the suburbs of Butler, that weighed 24 pounds, or 12 pounds each. He also presented us with two mammoth pumpkins weighing 123 pounds. We are arranging to have a year's pumpkin pies, besides utilizing the vines for cyclone cellars. The two Warnock boys, J. W. and J. S., are practical farmers, though living in Butler.

Only a few more days of the big sale on the J. D. Norton & Co. stock at Pierpoints.

Our esteemed young friend, W. H. Ewin was a pleasant caller on Tuesday and had his dates set ahead. He recently purchased a farm close to Butler and is doing well. He said his mother had gone to Oregon to visit her daughters, Mrs. D. P. Gingrich and Mrs. J. W. Stockton.

Pierpoints are originators not imitators, they bring prices down, others try to meet them.

Our esteemed young friend John O'Dea, of Mound township, was a pleasant caller on Monday and said he wanted to add his mite to keep up the printer's ladder, and sent his dates away ahead. He is serving on the regular panel of the petit jury.

Sumner C. Holcomb was shaking hands with his old friends in Butler Monday and made THE TIMES a pleasant call. He is a leading lawyer at Yates Center, Kansas, served two terms as prosecuting attorney and was renominated for the third term, but was defeated at the last election. He is married and has two children, a boy and a girl.

Pierpoints sell shoes that fit well and wear well. Why not try them.

Ex-county judge J. L. Porter, of Johnstown, was a pleasant caller, renewed for his paper and also for his daughter, Mrs. Edith Murray, a successful teacher at Longmont, Colorado. Judge Porter has great faith in the white face cattle. He sold off most of his herd during the drouth last year, but stocked up again this summer and fall. He now has a very fine bunch, of which he is justly proud.

Not Made or Controlled by a Trust. Be sure the trade mark "Ball-Band" is on every pair, and take no others said to be "as good as," etc.

If your new suit came from Pierpoints its all right, they sell only good clothes.

From an Oklahoma paper we see that Thomas M. Broadbush has been re-elected Recorder of Pawnee county, for the third consecutive time. Mr. Broadbush was formerly a prominent citizen of Bates county, as will be remembered by all the old settlers. We congratulate him on his success in that country.

Why face the storm while Pierpoints sell $1.25 umbrellas for 75c.

Misses Mabel and Hazel Hafe entertained a large party of friends at the Armory on last Thursday evening, at dancing and cards. The hall was beautifully decorated, one end being furnished with card tables, comfortable divans and rugs. A select orchestra furnished music for the dances. The evening was delightfully spent and these pretty and bright young ladies sustained their reputations as charming hostesses.

Flinch cards, the new parlor game there is such a craze about just now, 48c at Butler Cash Dept. Store.

S. T. Hays, formerly an old Bates county boy writes us from Clovis, Cal., as follows: "We have had the most prosperous year this state has ever known. I want to congratulate you on the handsome majority you rolled up for old Missouri this election, wish I could say as much for California, but the way the Missourians are flocking in here we hope soon to see California on the list as a Democratic state." Mr. Hays remembers us with a renewal.
